

Glassware / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1711

LOT 1711

A pair of gilt decorated double series opaque twist stem wine glasses, circa 1770, in the manner of James Giles, each ogee bowl decorated with a loose bouquet, scattered hops, sprigs and an insect, above a plain stem with a pair of loose multi-ply corkscrews outside a pair of spiral threads, on conical feet, height 14.5cm (minor faults). Note: a similar glass is illustrated by L.M. Bickerton in 'Eighteenth Century English Drinking Glasses, An Illustrated Guide', p. 350, pl.1,142.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

1711 - One in good condition with no significant damage or repairs, Minor manufacture blemish to foot. The other with small chip to edge of foot. Otherwise ok. Both with typical wear to gilt and typical light wear and scratches to glass.

Created: Wed, 9th March 2022 10:57