

Glassware / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1719

LOT 1719

A Continental polychrome enamelled glass flask, dated 1748, of shaped oval form with metal mount, a pair of lovebirds over a heart to one side, flanked by flowers and foliage, to the reverse script over the date, height 17.5cm, together with three similar glasses, one dated 1752, and a white enamelled glass, dated 1715, painted with deer beneath verse, height 7.5cm (one glass repaired).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1719 - Flask - in good order with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light wear to enamels. Metal collar is worn and missing its screw top.

Polychrome octagonal beaker - good condition other than a tiny chip to footrim and typical light wear to enamels.

Other figural enamelled beaker - broken and repaired.

Other two beakers - in good condition with typical light wear to enamels.

Created: Wed, 9th March 2022 11:06