

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1447

LOT 1447

A porcelain coffee pot and cover, possibly Tournay, 18th century, painted with a peasant courting couple within a landscape, the spout mask moulded, flanked by a scroll handle, the cover with a flower finial, height 21cm (restoration).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1447. The handle has been restored and restored chips to spout and rim. Otherwise body in generally good condition and painting is good.

Cover with small restored chip to rim and chips to flower finial.

Created: Wed, 9th March 2022 11:16