

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1615

LOT 1615

A large pair of Paris porcelain Meissen style figures, late 19th century, modelled as a lady and gentleman in period dress, he with a basket of flowers, she with a floral garland, standing on naturalistic floral encrusted circular bases, crossed swords mark in underglaze blue, height 48.5cm and 46.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Both overall generally in good condition but there has been some minor professional restoration, including both hands of the gentleman and the floral garland of the lady, some of the flower encrusting to the lady and the buttonhole of the gentleman.

Some typical losses to applied flowers and details.

Created: Thu, 10th March 2022 09:05