

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1624

LOT 1624

A large pair of French porcelain Meissen style figures, late 19th century, modelled as a standing lady and gentleman in period dress, each holding flowers, raised on naturalistic circular bases, underglaze blue factory mark, height 41cm (some restoration and faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

---

Condition Report

Both figures generally overall in good condition but with some professional restoration, e.g., to her neck, face, head and feet, and to his hands and face/neck.

Otherwise typical losses to applied flowers and foliage, minor wear to enamels.

Created: Thu, 10th March 2022 09:22