

Art Pottery / Thursday, 17th March 2022 / Lot 2438

LOT 2438

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware pink ground jug, circa 1874, decorated by Arthur B. Barlow, monogrammed, the bulbous body with trailing leaves and relief flowerheads, impressed and incised marks to base, height 19cm, together with a dark glittery brown ground vase by Mark V. Marshall with flowers and foliage, height 14cm (cracked), and a Carrara vase, height 22.8cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2438. Pink jug - tiny nick to spout, small firing crack to top of handle and some slight loss to edges of sprigged rosettes.

Gilded vase - some uneven gilding to bottom edge and some minor wear.

Smaller vase - in good condition.

Created: Mon, 14th March 2022 16:29