Condition Report

One emerald is cracked across the table.

Another emerald has a surface reaching inclusion running across the table. This same emerald has a chip to one corner.

All emeralds have a number of small chips to the table facet edges. All have one or two inclusions, some more substantial than others.

Diamonds appear to be bright, white stones, with one or two inclusions.

Some typical surface scratching to the shank. Some minor thinning to the shank.

Would benefit from a professional clean.
