

Art Pottery / Thursday, 17th March 2022 / Lot 2451

LOT 2451

Two Upchurch Pottery vases, first half 20th century, the first two-handled example with running pale green glaze over the tapered pale blue glazed body, incised mark, height 18cm, the second a tapered cylindrical body with thick mottled brown glaze covering a blue/grey body, impressed mark, height 33cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

2451. The taller vase has a few very minor glazing faults, but otherwise both are in good order.

Created: Wed, 16th March 2022 16:41