

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 7th April 2022 / Lot 1295

LOT 1295

A group of three Chinese celadon jade pendant carvings of boys, probably Qing dynasty, heights 6.5cm, 5.2cm and 5.2cm (one chipped and polished), together with a Chinese hardwood cylindrical cover, the top inset with a carved and pierced celadon jade panel, the sides carved in low relief with bats and branches, height 5.7cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

Tallest boy - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, typical light surface scratches.
Boy with lotus stem - minor nick to left foot and small chip/bruise to leaf of lotus stem, otherwise in good condition.

Other boy - missing his right arm and whatever he would have been holding, this has then been polished, otherwise ok.

Cover - inset jade plaque appears to be in good condition, no damage or repairs, the wood in generally good order with some minor natural shrinkage cracks, typical wear.

Created: Fri, 1st April 2022 09:57