LOT 1250

A Chinese Canton export lacquer folding fan, mid-19th century, the two guards and fourteen sticks decorated with gilt figural scenes and flowers, supporting a paper panel finely painted to each side with continuous figural scenes in and out of pavilions, each figure with appliqué ivory facial detail, length 29.5cm, within original lacquer rectangular fitted box, the hinged lid with gilt figural scene, the underside gilt inscribed 'E. Cardinali Canton', length 32.2cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1250. Fan is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. The lacquer guards and sticks with good vibrant gilt decoration with only minor wear. The paper panel with typical wear to creases, but good vibrant colours.

Box is generally ok, but hinges need re-attaching so cover is losses. Otherwise typical light wear, scuffs to corners, edges etc.
