LOT 1315

A Chinese French ivory/celluloid and bone mah jong set, early 20th century, the French ivory/celluloid tiles with incised and stained decoration, housed within a foliate inlaid hardwood case, fitted with brass handles above five drawers, enclosed by a sliding front panel, length 23.7cm, together with four tile stands and three books.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

Hardwood case in generally good condition with typical minor nicks to edges, sliding door with split across top of panel, some minor lifting to inlay, would benefit from a clean and polish.

Tiles in generally good clean condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches to tiles and a few with very minor scuffs to edges, some minor typical wear to their decoration but overall the colours are bright and vibrant.

The bone sticks in generally good order with light typical wear and some scuffs.
