LOT 1187

A Chinese famille verte porcelain circular tureen and cover, Kangxi period, the bowl exterior and cover painted with four groups of peony, chrysanthemum and other flowers and foliage, beneath small vignettes of fish and crustaceans against a foliate ground, the base interior with a butterfly above flowers, unmarked, diameter 24cm (extensive restoration and faults).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

The tureen base has been broken entirely in half from one side to the other, it has been subsequently restored and over-painted, there is some yellowing to the overpainting due to its age.

The cover is in generally good order but with 4 small chips and a bruise to the rim and fritting/glaze loss to the tip of the finial.

Enamels bright and vibrant with minor surface scratches and wear.
