LOT 350

A pair of George II cast silver candlesticks, each with a detachable nozzle and turned urn shaped sconce above a baluster stem and moulded shaped square base, London 1742 by James Gould, total weight 1088.7g, height 20.5cm.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,600

Condition Report

350. Both candlesticks are in generally good clean condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Both candlesticks stand straight and true. Both with very minor misshaping to sconce rims, but nozzles fit tightly. Nozzles original with matching part marks. Hallmarks to base are good and clear. Engraved tree crest matching on bases and nozzles of both.
