Condition Report

One of the diamonds directly next to the principal diamond draws colour to yellow, when viewed side on under 10x magnification this is more obvious. This diamond is possibly a later replacement.

The other four diamonds look to be largely white bright stones. All the diamonds have a few noticeable black inclusions under the table facets when viewed under 10x magnification.

The claws have been re-tipped in the past and two or three are beginning to show signs of wear.

Minor typical light surface scratching to setting/shank.
