LOT 550

A late Victorian gold backed and silver set diamond brooch of pierced design, the central starburst motif set with variously cut diamonds within a quatrefoil shaped surround, further set with diamonds, fitted with a safety chain, weight 9.2g, width 3.2cm.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,500

Condition Report

The diamonds are attractive white stones, with one or two inclusions but are generally attractive bright diamonds.

The brooch pin is rather wobbly.

There is a loop at the back of the bottom of the brooch, which at one time perhaps held a drop. Overall condition is good.

Principal diamond carat weight approx. 0.50ct

The surrounding eight diamonds to the principal diamond are probably approx. 0.12ct each. .
