

Jewellery / Wednesday, 13th April 2022 / Lot 633

LOT 633

A gold and citrine pendant fob seal, early 19th century, engraved with clasped hands of friendship above a monogram, otherwise of cushion shaped form with a scrolled surmount, unmarked, height 4.2cm, fitted with a split ring, total weight 31.6g.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

Slight signs of wear to the mount and to the top where the split ring connects into.
The foil backed citrine has slight surface wear to the facet edges but generally in clean original condition.
The seal mount is likely to be gold cased and of 9ct gold grade.

Created: Thu, 7th April 2022 09:30