LOT 2930

A Marasali prayer rug, Shirvan district, South-east Caucasus, 19th century, the midnight blue mihrab with overall offset rows of boteh, within an ivory boteh and vine border, 140cm x 128cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2930 - There is an overall very slight surface wear but generally the pile is quite good. There are a few small spots of moth damage, as well as a few small repairs to pile. The side cords have been re-bound and the ends have been later stitched to secure. There is probably some slight loss to the ends.
