

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 13th April 2022 / Lot 372

LOT 372

A late 19th century Dutch silver rectangular box, the hinged lid and sides decorated in relief with classical figures, putti and a hunting scene, import mark Sheffield 1894 by Samuel Boyce Landeck, weight 102.6g, length 8.6cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

372 - Box in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear particularly to highpoints, few minor dents. Knocks to edges. Good clear marks.

Created: Tue, 12th April 2022 10:36