LOT 2512

A late Victorian plated and gilt oil lamp of Corinthian column form with hobnail cut clear glass reservoir, Hinks burner and later etched clear glass shade, height 80cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2512. The clips on the burner are in good condition and the adjusters are fully functional. There are three holes drilled in the base and the silver plate has virtually all worn off.

The shade has a 1cm chip to top rim and numerous small chips around the bottom rim. No obvious cracks.
