

Jewellery / Wednesday, 11th May 2022 / Lot 645

LOT 645

A Victorian gold oval shell cameo brooch, circa 1860, in the classical taste, carved as a portrait of a 19th century gentleman, the mount with applied bead and wirework decoration, unmarked, weight 27.2g, width 4.6cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

The cameo is in good condition. Slight dent to the mount located opposite the back of the collar of the sitter. There are natural inclusions within the shell at the top of the cameo that give the appearance of cracks but these are not surface reaching. Overall slight rubbing to the cameo surface.

Created: Thu, 5th May 2022 10:00