

Jewellery / Wednesday, 11th May 2022 / Lot 653

LOT 653

A Victorian gold and turquoise brooch, circa 1850, in a ribbon tied bow shaped design, mounted with rows of turquoises, the front with two graduated turquoise set pendant drops, and two graduated chains, unmarked, weight 15g, width 5.2cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

The chains to the drops are both rather worn. The glazing and frame of the small oval locket at the back is missing. Small dent at the top of the bow. Hinge bracket possibly replaced. The three blue gems on the left side of the brooch are paste replacements, the central one of these is chipped. One or two other turquoise have perhaps been replaced in the past.

Created: Thu, 5th May 2022 10:01