LOT 2902

An Esfahan 'Tree of Life' prayer rug, Central Persia, early 20th century, the ivory mihrab with a principal flowering tree and two further trees, populated by birds and two recumbent animals, within a complimentary claret border, 232cm x 142cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

2902. Generally the condition is very good with good pile throughout. There is a small repair to the ivory field to the right of the tree trunk, and there is some very slight wear to edges. The side cords appear to have been re-bound and one edge is slightly curled over.
