

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Tuesday, 10th May 2022 / Lot 1845

LOT 1845

A Second World War period Japanese NCO's katana with curved single-edged fullered blade, blade length 69.5cm, numbered '61537', with bronzed white metal tsuba and cast aluminium grip, retaining traces of original paint, with bronze-finished metal scabbard (lacking suspension ring) and award certificate, dated 1st Oct 1947, presenting the sword to Captain D.M. Eynon of the 1st Battalion Chin Rifles, No. 61537.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

1845. One or two bruises to scabbard. Some overall rust forming. Press stud does not function. Blade and scabbard do not appear bent. Blade length 69.5cm as stated in description. Scabbard length approx 71cm. Pommel is one piece with grip, no movement.

Created: Mon, 9th May 2022 12:07