

Fine Art / Wednesday, 11th May 2022 / Lot 55

LOT 55

British School - Full Length Profile Silhouette Portrait of a Gentleman holding a Top Hat near the Royal Pavilion Brighton, 19th century ink with watercolour and gouache, 25.5cm x 18cm, within a birds-eye maple frame. Note: this silhouette is reproduced in Peggy Hickman's 'Two Centuries of Silhouettes: Celebrities in Profile' (A & C. Black, 1971).

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

55. Some age toning and light browning to paper. A few minor spots of staining caused by detritus trapped beneath the glass. Some minor paint flaking to the tail of the jacket and trousers. The work has not been laid down. Slightly loose in frame.

Frame with chips to three corners and other nibbles to the edge, otherwise condition of frame commensurate with age.

Created: Tue, 10th May 2022 11:52