LOT 1183

A 19th century Black Forest musical organ wall clock with weight driven movement striking on a bell and barrel/cylinder musical mechanism, the painted square dial with bust portrait of a gentleman and flowers to corners framing black Roman hour numerals and outer Arabic minutes, the arched surmount painted with theatre canopy, height 61cm, with two weights (faults). Note: this clock is in generally disassembled condition with some missing components. It may well have featured automaton figures but they are not present.

Estimate: £500 - £1,000

Condition Report

1183. The mechanism is very much as it appears in the online images. The clock is disassembled and may have some missing components. As it is disassembled it is impossible to tell if it works. Some losses to edges of dials.
