

British and Continental Ceramics / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1477

LOT 1477

A Worcester leaf moulded mask spouted jug, circa 1790-1800, with ovoid body, cylindrical neck and 'C' scroll handle, painted in blue and gilt with flower sprays and scattered sprigs around a gilt monogram beneath the spout, height 19cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

3mm long narrow chip to top rim edge of spout with some areas of glaze loss to the top rim edge. There is also a manufacturing blemish to the top gilt rim edge approx 1cm long where the gilding is missing and the body of the jug showing has some black speckling to the paste. Otherwise in good condition overall with no real signs of wear to the other gilding or enamels.

Created: Tue, 24th May 2022 14:53