

British and Continental Ceramics / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1447

LOT 1447

Three Doulton Lambeth stoneware miniatures, comprising a silver rimmed mug, height 4cm, a tyg and a jug, each sprigged with topping figures, together with a similar Doulton bottle, height 5.5cm, and a small group of other ceramics, including two Coalport gilt-lined cups, a similar bowl and a Crown Staffordshire vase and cover.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Doulton silver rimmed mug - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Doulton tyg - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Doulton jug - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Doulton bottle - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Doulton Father Christmas jug - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Coalport red ground gilt lined jug - finely crazed, otherwise ok.

Coalport smaller cup - vertical crack by handle, crazed.

Coalport daisy bowl - crazed but ok.

English porcelain taperstick - minor restoration to rim edge.

Two Coalport trays - floral example crazed, otherwise both ok.

Crown Staffordshire large vase and cover - vase in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The cover is crazed and has a minuscule nick to the underside edge of the knop.

Crown Staffordshire smaller vase and cover - a few insignificant scratches to the decoration of the main body, otherwise in good condition. Cover possibly matched.