

British and Continental Ceramics / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1611

LOT 1611

A Dutch Delft barber's bowl, 18th century, painted in blue with a central stylized flower, the rim with 'C' shaped motifs, diameter 29cm (broken in half and restored).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Broken in half across its diameter, running from the centre of the knotted section to the rim opposite, and professionally but visibly restored. Typical fritting to rim edges. A few vertical hairlines to the wide rim, fairly indistinct.

Created: Mon, 30th May 2022 12:23