

British and Continental Ceramics / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1534

LOT 1534

A Derby porcelain plate, circa 1815, painted with a titled landscape view, 'In South Wales', within a rim of gilt foliate scrollwork, red painted factory mark and title to reverse, diameter 22.4cm, together with an unusual Derby plate, painted in Paris style, circa 1790-1800, purple painted factory mark to reverse, diameter 23.5cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

South Wales plate - overall heavy crazing to glaze, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Paris style plate - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some stacking wear to well and very minor wear to gilt rim.

Created: Mon, 30th May 2022 14:55