

British and Continental Ceramics / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1603

LOT 1603

Two English Delft blue painted chinoiserie chargers, second half 18th century, the first with a figure in a garden, the rim with a partial repeat of the main view, the second with a willow tree before a fence with flowering stems and leaf sprays to the rim, each 35cm diameter (typical fritting).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Both with typical fritted chipping to the rims, but generally in good order with no cracks or restoration.

Created: Tue, 31st May 2022 11:57