

Glassware / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1714

LOT 1714

Two engraved commemorative glasses, early 19th century, the first a wine with trumpet bowl, engraved with a crowned 'G III' within a laurel wreath, on a plain stem and conical foot, height 14.7cm, the second a dram glass, the ogee bowl inscribed 'Wellington for Ever' above a sword opposing a bird in flight, on a bladed stem and domed foot, height 9.9cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

George glass - the foot is very small although it doesn't seem to have been reduced.

Wellington - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration but foot appears quite and uneven shape.

Created: Tue, 31st May 2022 12:12