

Glassware / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1717

LOT 1717

A mixed group of drinking glasses, mostly English, 19th century, including a pair of goblets, both inscribed to 'H. Harrison', engraved with figures performing country tasks, height 14.7cm, a gilt decorated Baccarat tumbler, height 6.2cm, and a moulded mug with diamond registration lozenge to base, height 10.5cm (some faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

The lot is too extensive to detail the condition fully, but overall the glasses are generally in good order. There is a folded foot wine engraved with fruiting vine which has a cracked bowl. Those glasses with gilded decoration are worn/rubbed.

Created: Tue, 31st May 2022 12:22