

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thursday, 9th June 2022 / Lot 2598

LOT 2598

A collection of novelty propelling pencils, mainly early 20th century, comprising a top hat and umbrella, length 11cm, a gilt metal cannon barrel, a hammer, a champagne bottle, a long horn and four others, together with a white metal pencil holder, formed as an owl with orange glass eyes, length 3cm.

Estimate: £250 - £300

Condition Report

2598 - The top hat and umbrella is a dip pen (fountain pen) and has minor losses to the painted decoration.

Cannon - missing its internal mechanism.

Hammer 9.5cm - fully functional with wear to chrome on the head.

Champagne 4cm - fully functional.

Long Horn 10.5cm - the action is stiff and non functional, dents to body.

The other items have wear consistent with age and use.

Created: Thu, 9th June 2022 16:47