

Jewellery / Wednesday, 8th June 2022 / Lot 635

LOT 635

A Victorian gold cased propelling pencil, modelled as a monk, length 4.4cm, a gold cased slide action pencil, designed as a cross, and two further items.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

All the pencils are very worn and have faults.

The pencil of standard design is in fair condition, the slide action appears to be working. The pencil lead is possibly 1.2mm in diameter.

The cannon form pencil is missing one end and lacking its mechanism.

The monk form pencil is missing its end and is generally rather dented. One cabochon red gem missing.

The cruciform pencil is dented and worn. The point end of the mechanism is missing.

The pencils are gold plated and unmarked.

Created: Wed, 1st June 2022 16:13