

Jewellery / Wednesday, 8th June 2022 / Lot 622

LOT 622

A Victorian gold and turquoise bracelet and matching brooch in the classical taste, the front of the bracelet and top section of the brooch of circular form with applied wirework decoration, with turquoises set at intervals, the brooch with a pendant tassel drop, both pieces glazed with locket compartments to the back, unmarked, length of bracelet 16.5cm, length of brooch 6.5cm, total weight 33.5g, with a fitted case, the lid detailed 'W.H. Tooke, Liverpool' (the hinge broken).

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

Brooch - in very good condition.

Bracelet - the front is in good condition. Two slight kinks to the bracelet on one side. There is a small kink where the mesh meets the back of the clasp. There is a detachable pin to one side of the front circular section which has a loop to the end. The clasp is in good working order.

The box exterior is a little scuffed.

Created: Wed, 1st June 2022 16:51