Condition Report

The seed pearls are a little dirty and discoloured. Indication of old repair work to the blue enamel, done long ago. One or two tiny chips to the blue enamel.

A little bit of re-enforcing to the back of each brooch, either side of the pin.

One or two surface marks to the fronts of each. There is a small split on the right on the top of the scroll on one of the brooches.

Otherwise in fairly good condition.
