LOT 741

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

The rock crystal has some abrasion to the very tip of the stone, with a tiny chip in this area as well. There is some slight scratching and abrasion to one or two of the side facets/edges.

Generally there is light surface wear/scratching to the metal. The ring would benefit from a clean.
