

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 8th June 2022 / Lot 345

LOT 345

A Victorian silver mounted Stourbridge glass claret jug with silver collar and hinged lid, decorated with fleurs-de-lis, the tapering body engraved with a bird perched amongst flowers and fern fronds, on a circular foot, Sheffield 1872 by CF, height 29cm.

Estimate: £300 - £400

---

Condition Report

345. The jug is in good clean condition. The glass has no cracks or chips. The foot may have had a very small chip/scuff polished out, but not obvious. Engraving is good. Silver mount is good with good clear hallmarks.

Created: Mon, 6th June 2022 12:21