LOT 1052

A Chinese famille rose porcelain stacking four-tier food box and cover, early 20th century, of cylindrical form, painted with blossoming branches and butterflies, iron red printed seal marks to bases, height 13.3cm (cover repaired and lacking finial).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1052. Cover has been broken into 2 pieces and re-glued, also small chip to rim and a 6cm hairline across top to rim. Missing finial.

The other four sections in generally good condition, one has a 1cm hairline crack which emanates from a firing crack to rim. Otherwise typical light surface scratches and wear, but no significant damage or repairs.

All pieces stack together well.
