LOT 615

A Catherine Best gold, sapphire and varicoloured gemstone Cradle of Love pendant necklace, the crescent moon shaped pendant collet set with four circular cut coloured gemstones, detailed '750', on a gold Brazil link neckchain, the clasp detailed '750', weight 20.3cm, length 43cm, with a case.

Estimate: £600 - £900

Condition Report

Typical light surface wear. Clasp in good working order.

Due to the nature of the design/setting, we cannot be conclusive regarding the other varieties of gemstone within the pendant.

The pendant is however still being produced by Catherine Best and her website currently lists the possibilities of gemstone which can be set within it, whether this has altered since the pendant design was first introduced we do not know.
