LOT 567

A white gold, ruby and diamond ring in a slanting design, claw set with four rows of circular cut rubies alternating with three rows of circular cut diamonds, detailed '18ct', weight 5.1g, ring size approx M.

Estimate: £350 - £450

Condition Report

The rubies are of medium to dark colour saturation. A ruby to one end has a chip to the table edge and one or two others have a surface reaching inclusion. Diamonds have a number of inclusions, some black in colour, noticeable under x10 magnification.

Looks like the end claws supporting the rubies have been re-tipped in the past.

Other typical light scratching/wear to the shank and setting.

Rubies and diamonds approx. 2.4/2.5mm diameter.
