LOT 1141

A late 19th century French gilt spelter and porcelain mantel clock garniture, the clock with eight day movement striking on a bell, the painted porcelain dial with Roman hour numerals on a blue band ground, framing bird and flowers, the case with urn surmount above laurel wreath handles and an inset porcelain panel, on twin hoof feet, height 44cm, with pendulum, together with a pair of matching ornaments, height 27.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1141. The garniture is in generally good condition. The gilt spelter is a little dusty and dirty and would certainly benefit from a clean. The only significant damage is a repaired section along the back base panel of the clock and back legs. Porcelain in good order with only typical surface scratches and wear. Both trains of movement wind smoothly and it starts to run, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.
