LOT 2600

A 19th century Louis Vuitton 'Emballeur' travelling trunk, the grey canvas body with overall wooden straps and tooled leather edging, the interior bearing label detailed 'Louis Vuitton Emballeur' and inscribed '2102 1879', the sides initialled 'E.A', the underside branded with 'Louis Vuitton' and fitted with castors, height 69cm, width 94cm, depth 53cm (lacking one castor and faults to leather strapwork).

Estimate: £2,000 - £4,000

Condition Report

2600. As can be seen in the multiple photos on our website, there are some fairly typical scuffs and marks to the surface of the trunk. Damage and loss to the leather buckles on the front of the trunk. One of the castors is missing to the underside and there is some very minor woodworm to some of the base. One of the wooden slats on the underside has a small split. The interior has some minor wear and loss.
