LOT 1632

Two Clarice Cliff Bizarre shape 205 vases, 1930s, the first painted in the Gayday pattern, the second Autumn Crocus, black printed, impressed and incised marks to bases, height 21cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Crocus - there is an approx 8cm long haircrack to one side running from the shorter blue flowers into the brown banding, it seems to start at a firing crack. There are typical overall small scratches/digs to the enamels.
Gayday - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Enamels good.
