

Glassware / Thursday, 11th August 2022 / Lot 1708

LOT 1708

Two Theresienthal enamelled glasses, early 20th century, both bowls painted and gilt with an open flowerhead above a green stem and circular foot, height 14.5cm, together with six similar liqueur glasses with flowerhead shaped bowls, and six opalescent shot glasses with gilt detail, height 5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Each glass is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

At least 3 of the small liqueur glasses have a rough finish to the rim which is a manufacturing issue and not damage.

Created: Tue, 9th August 2022 12:55