

Glassware / Thursday, 11th August 2022 / Lot 1773

LOT 1773

A set of six enameled glass beakers, after Moser, first half 20th century, each painted with opposing cranes amidst green grass and white flowers, beneath gilt rims, height 8.5cm, together with four matching roemers, height 14cm (gilding worn).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

One of the roemers has a tiny nick to the outer upper rim edge, otherwise there are no cracks, chips or restoration to the bodies of the glasses.

The enameled decoration is generally in good order with minimal wear/losses, most noticeably the white enameled foliage on the roemers is worn, the gilding is overall quite worn to the rims.
