LOT 1602

A Mintons cobalt blue ground bottle vase and cover, circa 1891, the spherical body decorated in the manner of Dresser with a geometric foliate design in gilt and green, white and pale blue enamels, the cover, neck and footrim with contrasting geometric designs, green printed and impressed marks to base, height 41cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There are two little white dots of enamel missing from the decoration on the edge of the cover, and the gilding is a little worn where the cover sits in place, otherwise the enamels and gilding overall remain bright and vibrant with no signs of wear.
