

Glassware / Thursday, 11th August 2022 / Lot 1774

LOT 1774

A Schneider Vercais range enamelled glass vase, 1930s, the clear baluster body enamelled in blue with a wintry landscape above a white mottled ground, blue painted mark, height 20.5cm, together with a small group of other mostly enamelled glassware, including a Daum style winter landscape shot glass, height 5cm, and three variegated lemon yellow and white splatter vases, probably by Franz Welz.

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

Pair splatter vases - gilding worn, otherwise ok.
Square splatter vase - minor nicks to top rim edge.
Pair black vases with white flowers - wear to gilt rims.
Winter scene tot glass - 3 minuscule little nicks to top rim edge.
Pair enamelled shot glasses - gilding worn, otherwise ok.

Created: Wed, 10th August 2022 15:54