LOT 1045

A Chinese famille rose enamelled porcelain figure group, late Qing dynasty, modelled as Guanyin standing on a pierced rocky base, accompanied by a boy acolyte, height 25.5cm (minor restoration and faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

The section of base the boy is standing on has been broken away through the narrowest point and visibly glued back into place with no significant losses, there is an associated approx 2cm high vertical section of pierced rock work behind the boy which has been visibly restored.

The bottom right corner of Guanyin's robe at the front has been visibly restored, otherwise she is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The enamels on her robes are a little pale and the gilt highlights to her clothing are pretty much completely worn.
