LOT 1236

A Japanese inlaid lacquer rectangular panel, Meiji period, inlaid in bone, ivory and mother-of-pearl with a sparrow holding a grasshopper in its beak beneath flowers, leaves and bamboo, on a black lacquered ground, 67cm x 32cm, gilt framed.

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

1236. The panel is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. There appears to be one small piece of inlay missing to the bird's back claw, and a small replaced/repaired piece of inlay to the lower section of vine on the left side of the image. Otherwise all inlay appears to be present and in decent order. Black lacquer ground with typical minor scratches and wear.
